

Vol. 14, No 2, September 2008

Call for articles and commentaries:

The public right to know 6

Edition co-editors: Professor Chris Nash (ACIJ) and A/Professor David Robie (AUT)

Articles are sought for publication in the September 2008 edition of Pacific Journalism Review. This themed edition will be linked to the 2007 Public Right to Know (PR2K6) conference at the University of Technology, Sydney (UTS), November 23-25, "Reporting Futures: Journalism, new media, new publics". The editors will be especially interested in articles or commentaries exploring themes such as:

- Changing business models for news media
- Multi-modality and new forms of storytelling
- Changing audiences
- Industrial relations in the changing newsroom
- Intellectual property and rights to information
- Reporting vs advocacy
- Ethics, accountability and regulation
- Censorship and surveillance
- Journalism education

Articles on other topics related to media and journalism theory and practice may also be considered. The journal has four main sections: Research articles, Commentaries, Forum and Reviews.
