

Vol. 15, No 2, October 2009

Call for articles and commentaries:

PUBLIC RIGHT TO KNOW

'Give the people what they want'

Edition editor: Wendy Bacon (ACIJ), Jan McClelland (ACIJ) and David Robie (Pacific Media Centre, AUT)

Articles are sought for publication in the October 2009 edition of Pacific Journalism Review. This themed edition will be linked to the 2008 Public Right to Know 'Give the people what they want' conference organised by the Australian Centre for Independent Journalism (ACIJ) at the University of Technology, Sydney, October 17-18. The editors will be especially interested in articles or commentaries presented at the conference and exploring themes such as:

- Celebrity nights, celebrity rights
- Under the radar: New media, new voices
- Blocked arteries: Gatekeepers vs the free flow of information
- Beyond convention: New ways of telling
- Making headlines: Politics issues and spin
- Behold a new horizon: Mediaworld

Articles on other topics related to media and journalism theory and practice may also be considered. The journal has four main sections: Research articles, Commentaries, Forum and Reviews.

Email ACIJ: acij@uts.edu.au

Articles up to 6000 words

Commentaries 1500 to 3000 words

Forum contributions up to 800 words.

Submission deadline: May 31, 2009
