

Sure, there are many routes to success.
But there is at least one incentive.

The Indian Newslink Journalism Scholarship

Indian Newslink is proud to pioneer a scholarship in Journalism at the AUT University, aiming to create new generations of qualified and well-trained journalists, who will lift the standard of the profession in New Zealand.

The Scholarship includes full tuition fees for a maximum of four papers per semester, Student Services Levy and Student Association (AuSM) fee to one student selected to pursue one-year postgraduate programmes at AUT. The selected candidate will have the option to be trained and/or employed at Indian Newslink at the discretion of its management.

The Indian Newslink Journalism Scholarship is open to all citizens and permanent residents of New Zealand, irrespective of their ethnicity, subject to the eligibility criteria and other rules and regulations.
