

Vol. 16, No 1, May 2010

Call for articles and commentaries:

REPORTING CONFLICT Challenges and responsibilities

Edition editors: Professor Wendy Bacon (UTS-ACIJ), A/Professor David Robie (AUT) and Alan Samson (Massey)

Articles are sought for publication in the May 2010 edition of Pacific Journalism Review. This themed edition will be linked to the May 2009 Reporting War seminars in Auckland and Sydney organised and hosted by the International Committee of the Red Cross in association with Massey University, Wellington, and the University of Technology, Sydney. The editors will be especially interested in articles or commentaries exploring themes globally and in the Asia-Pacific region such as:

- Conflict reporting: responsibilities and challenges
- The relationship between humanitarians and journalists
- The media and international humanitarian law
- The media under fire
- The military and the media
- Safety and protection of journalists
- Internal and insurgency conflicts
- Journalism schools and conflict reporting education
- Reporting wars: Future trends

Articles on other topics related to media and journalism theory and practice may also be considered.

The double blind peer-reviewed journal has four main sections: Research articles, Commentaries, Forum and Reviews.

Managing editor: A/Professor David Robie

Email the editor: pjreview@aut.ac.nz

Articles up to 6000 words

Commentaries 1500 to 3000 words

Reviews up to 1500 words

(Noted short reviews 300 words)

Forum contributions up to 800 words.

Submission deadline:

December 20, 2009

www.pjreview.info